

THE CONVENTION'S WORK. WHAT WAS ACCOMPLISHED BY THE EPISCOPAL DELEGATES AT MINNEAPOLIS.

MUCH EARNEST AND ABLE DEBATE, BUT LITTLE ACTION—THE THREE GREAT QUESTIONS—SOME ABLE SPEAKERS. Minneapolis, Oct. 24 (Special).—One of the most interesting and altogether delightful conventions...

A PARTY WITHOUT A LEADER. One or two have assumed that position, but their right and fitness to lead have not been wholly indisputed in this convention. One thing, however, is finally settled...

THE JOINT COMMISSION'S REPORT. The report of the joint commission was, of course, the matter that occupied most of the time of the convention. It has been before the church and the whole public in a printed form for several months...

A REPUTATION QUICKLY MADE. Reputations are sometimes quickly made, and as quickly lost in these general conventions of the Episcopal Church. It would not be gracious to give instances of those who have lost; but it is proper to make mention of one who gained a reputation by a single speech...

DR. HUNTINGTON ANSWERED. The ablest argument against Dr. Huntington's resolution was made by the venerable Dr. Jewell, of Milwaukee, but the most effective criticism was contained in the address of Mr. Bidde, of Philadelphia, which was as clever a piece of ridicule as the General Convention has listened to in many a day...

THE HOUSE OF BISHOPS HAS GRANTED A DIVISION OF THE DIOCESE OF KENTUCKY AND CALIFORNIA INTO TWO EPISCOPAL DISTRICTS. From the present diocese of Minnesota and North Carolina, Northern Michigan has been admitted...

THE GOVERNOR'S STAFF AT THE RANGES. ITS MEMBERS TO TRY THEIR SKILL AT THE CREEDMOOR TARGETS. The members of Governor Morton's staff will try their skill as sharpshooters at the Creedmoor targets to-day. It is expected that every member of the staff will be present and that some good records will be made...

FLORENCE I. DONOVAN'S RELEASE. THE QUASHING OF THE INDICTMENT AGAINST HER WAS NOT A GREAT SURPRISE. The dismissal of the indictment for manslaughter under which Florence I. Donovan had been held under trial since March, 1893, was not a surprise to the public...

NOT MONEY ENOUGH FOR THE CHANGES. BIDS MADE FOR THE REPAIRS IN THE POSTOFFICE REJECTED BECAUSE OF LACK OF FUNDS. George J. Harlow, superintendent of repairs at the New-York Postoffice Building, received notification from Washington yesterday morning that all the bids made for the repairs on the building have been rejected...

FEATURES OF THE COTTON MARKET. ELLISON ISSUES A CIRCULAR ON CONSUMPTION—QUOTATIONS RISE AND FALL AGAIN. The tone of the cotton market was distinctly better yesterday. It had closed under such depression on Wednesday that a sharp fall was expected in Liverpool...

INTOLUNTARY DEATH OF A HORSE. HE RAN INTO A FERRY SLIP, TAKING A MILK CART WITH HIM. Beneath the muddy water of the Chambers-st. ferry slip there lay yesterday morning the body of a horse, which had been run over by a milk cart...

ATTACKED A MARSHAL WITH A BALL BAT. City Marshal Max Gross, of No. 39 Attorney-st., went to the house of John Prenderville, at No. 25 Clark-st., at 7 o'clock yesterday morning, to execute a civil warrant against him that was issued in the Fourth District Civil Court yesterday...

ARRESTED FOR STEALING CHAIRS. James T. Rasher, thirty-four years old, was arraigned in Jefferson Market Court yesterday on the complaint of Frank R. Marks, of No. 33 East Twenty-second-st., who charged him with grand larceny of chairs...

AN ITALIAN SENTENCED FOR MANSLAUGHTER. Judge Fitzgerald, in General Sessions, yesterday sentenced Antonio Caldaro to seven years and ten months in the State Prison. Caldaro was convicted of manslaughter in the first degree last week for the killing of Michael Pasento, at No. 345 West Broadway...

TO-NIGHT'S BIG MEETING. ALL THE REPUBLICAN STATE CANDIDATES TO BE AT COOPER UNION. EACH OF THEM TO MAKE AN ADDRESS—GOVERNOR HASTINGS' OF PENNSYLVANIA, EX-SENATOR FASSETT, EX-SENATOR HISCOCK AND NATHANIEL W. NORCOTT ALSO TO SPEAK. The indications are that the Republican mass-meeting which is to be held at Cooper Union to-night under the auspices of the Republican State Club, whose house is in East Twenty-second-st., will be a great demonstration, and one of the most successful meetings of the campaign...

SPY'S TESTIMONY NOT ENOUGH. JUSTICE JACOB SAYS HE WILL NOT ENTERTAIN IT UNCORROBORATED. Justice Jacob, presiding in the Court of Special Sessions, announced yesterday afternoon that he would refuse to entertain the uncorroborated testimony of police or any other kind of spies and discharged from custody Thomas Kirkland, proprietor of the Jerome Avenue Hotel, at One-hundred-and-Sixty-ninth-st. and Jerome-ave., accused of violating the excise law...

THE SHERIFF'S DEMURRERS. ONE ALLOWED AND THE OTHER OVER-ruled. JUDGE FITZGERALD FINDS THAT THE INDICTMENT FOR NOT REMOVING THE INCOMPETENT OFFICIALS IS WEAK. Judge Fitzgerald in General Sessions yesterday rendered his decision on the demurrers to the indictments against Sheriff Tamsen in connection with the escape of the three postoffice robbers from Ludlow Street Jail on July 4. The first demurrer was overruled and the second allowed. Judge Fitzgerald is his decision on the first count says: "A Sheriff or other officer or person who allows a prisoner lawfully in his custody in any action of proceeding, civil or criminal, or in any prison under his control, to escape or so at large except as permitted by law, or connives at or assists such escape, or omits to do his duty whereby such escape is accomplished, or contributed to or assisted, is guilty of a misdemeanor."

feature of the meeting will be that each candidate on the Republican State ticket will be present and will make an address. The other speakers will be Governor Daniel H. Hastings of Pennsylvania, ex-Senator Frank Hiscock, of Syracuse, and Nathaniel W. Norton, of Buffalo. Such a strong list of speakers and the added attraction of seeing speakers on one platform drew an enormous crowd. It is significant that this is the first time that all the members of the State ticket have been brought together at a single meeting.

All the candidates have arrived in the city, so there will be no disappointment at the meeting.

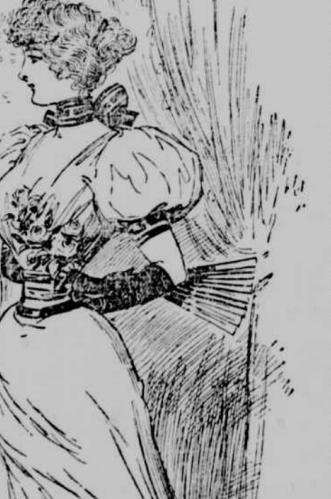

JOHN PALMER.

John Palmer, Secretary of State, reached here last evening. He is a strong candidate. For forty years he has been a resident of the city of Albany. He has made an excellent record as Secretary of State. He carried into the office the experience of an active business life for twenty-seven years; he found the work on the records of his office many years behind, but by skillful management and personal attention to the work he has brought it up to date, so that to-day the records of the Secretary of State's office are complete. By his personal efforts he secured the passage of a law which changed the mode of the filing of criminal statistics, which has proved to be a saving of nearly $300,000 a year to the people of the State.

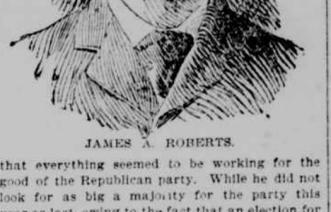

Secretary Palmer served for four years in the Union Army in the 91st Regiment from Albany, and returned at the close of the war with as clean and brilliant a record as a soldier as he has made as Secretary of State. His services to the veterans of the late war during the last twenty-seven years as chairman of the Executive Committee of the State Soldiers' Home, commander of the G. A. R. of New-York State, commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the United States, and in various other capacities, have been with him a labor of love. These untiring efforts on behalf of the State have earned him the respect and admiration of his fellow-citizens.

THEODORE E. HANCOCK.

ADDISON B. COLVIN.

Nor do we consider the failure to allege any mischief as having resulted from the negligence fatal to the indictment. As the negligence itself is the substantial offense charged, the negligence which the statute constitutes a crime. It has been held that it is an indictable offense for an officer to be drunk while on duty. The same principle applies to a public officer who is negligent in his conduct, but has put himself in a position from which mischief might result, and for so doing he is liable to a penal judgment.

The next question to be disposed of is, Are the allegations of the indictment sufficient to sustain a conviction? It is charged that the defendant knew the before-mentioned warden and keepers to be grossly unfit, improper and inefficient, and that he refused to remove them, and for so doing he was guilty of a crime. It is also charged that the defendant, by his negligence, allowed the escape of the three postoffice robbers, and for so doing he was guilty of a crime. It is also charged that the defendant, by his negligence, allowed the escape of the three postoffice robbers, and for so doing he was guilty of a crime.

A MEETING PLACE FOR SHOPPERS. OPENING OF THE HOME OF THE TOWN AND COUNTRY CLUB. The home of the new Town and Country Club, at No. 12 East Twenty-second-st., was thrown open to the members of the club and their friends for the first time yesterday. The object of the club is to furnish a home-like place of rest for women whose homes are not near the shopping centre. All possible provision is made for the comfort of the members. The rooms, which include a large parlor, a luncheon-room and several bedrooms, which may be engaged by subscribers for limited periods, are handsomely furnished. Messenger service has been established, facilities for letter-writing are provided, and umbrellas will be loaned.

made an admirable State Treasurer. He said, in speaking of things in the State: "You can not expect to revolutionize matters every year. Last year was an epoch in the political history of the State. That cannot be done every year, and we do not look for it. But one thing is sure—the State will see Republicanism by a handsome majority. I do not expect to see the State in a political crisis, as I live up to the State and do not dabble in city questions. As for the State, I think that a majority of 40,000, which has been secured by the State, is a very good thing. The Republican party always fares better when its issues are debated."

THEODORE E. HANCOCK AND STATE ENGINEER CAMPBELL W. ADAMS are also here, and they agree practically with other members of the State ticket as to the method of conducting the campaign and the probable majority. The other speakers are also on hand, and nothing will happen to mar the success of the meeting. Lieutenant-Governor Saxton is also here.

AMERICAN APPLES IN ENGLAND. A GOOD DEMAND AND PROFITABLE PRICES AT THE LAST LIVERPOOL AUCTION SALES. American apples continue to be in good demand and to command profitable prices in England, notwithstanding the abundant crop there and in other transatlantic countries. At the last wholesale auction sales in Liverpool the prices, as reported by cable to Otto G. Mayer & Co., were as follows: Baldwin, large, from $2.06 to $2.17, and small, from $2.08 to $2.42 a barrel; greenings, $2.45 to $3.06; choice Newtown pippin, $3.77 to $7.34, and ordinary, $2.92 to $4.65.

BERNARDO FOGGIO SENTENCED. Bernardo Foglio, who on October 15 was convicted of manslaughter in the Court of Oyer and Terminer, was before Judge Ingraham for sentence yesterday. Foglio was tried for the killing of his wife, Mrs. Maria Foglio, on the morning of the Columbus-ave. The sentence was fifteen years and three months in State Prison.

"DEAR ME IS THAT MUSTACHE ALL YOUR OWN?" "WELL—A SAY ONE WORD, AND IT WILL BE YOURS."
